Agenda

PeopleSoft 9.2 Security Functional

Human Capital Management (HCM)
Financials Supply Chain Management (FSCM)

1-Day Course

SPEARMC IS NOW MYTHICS

PeopleSoft Security Functional

Developed for PeopleSoft 9.2 functional end users, Security training quickly introduces students to the building blocks of PeopleSoft Security in FSCM and HCM. The goals of this class are achieved through demonstrating various live PeopleSoft Security component scenarios.

Prerequisites:

- PeoleSoft 9.2 Foundations

Technology Overview

- Secure by default
- Security in PIA
- Development security
- Application security
- Transaction audits
- Data encryption and digital certificates
- Batch and query security
- Signon and portal security
- Maintaining users across multiple databases

Information Security

- Information security
- Four security levels
- Design and implement PeopleSoft security

Login Process

- PeopleSoft Login Process

Passwords

- NIST's New Password Rule Book

User Profiles

- Create user profiles
- Copy user profiles

Roles

- Create roles
- Copy roles
- Delete roles

Permission Lists

- The elements of application security
- Create permission lists
- Copy permission lists
- Delete permission lists

Portal

- Describe portal registry security
- Maintain portal registry security
- View portal security details

Batch/Process Security

- Process Security
- Batch Security: Process Groups
- Batch Security: Process Profile
- Batch Security Visualized

Tools Access

- Permission Lists: PeopleTools
- Tools Permissions: Upgrade
- Permissions: Definition Security

©2026 SpearMC (now part of Mythics)

SPEARMC IS NOW MYTHICS®

PeopleSoft Security Functional

Tips and Tricks

- Troubleshooting Security
- Security Strategy and Considerations
- Best Practice: Cloning Permissions
- Portal and Fluid: A quick tour

Appendix A

- Security Tables
- FSCM Security Differences
- HCM Security Differences

Appendix B

- Query Security

Recommended Courses

- Query Basic & Intermediate
- Query Advanced